(I.Vth YEAR.) THE (No. 2769.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1800.

In COUNCIL, Annapolis, January 8, 1800.

ORDERED, That the act to appoint an agent for the year one thousand eight hundred, be published once in each week, for the term of eight weeks, in the Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis, the Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, Mr. Cowan's paper at Easton, the Rights of Man, at Frederick-town, and in Green, English, and Co's. paper, at George-town.

By order,

NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the governor and council.

An ACT to appoint an agent for the year one thousand eight hundred.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Marbury be agent of this state, to execute the trust and power reposed in him by virtue of this act, from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred, until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and one.

II. And be it enacted, That the said agent superintend the collection of all arrearages and balances due from the several collectors of the respective counties within this state; and the said agent is hereby authorised and required to call upon the treasurers of the respective shores for an accurate statement of all arrearages and balances due from such collectors, and such accounts shall be furnished by the said treasurers accordingly.

III. And be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to superintend the collection of balances due to the state on the auditor's books, or on open account; and the said agent shall have power to require payment of, and, if necessary, to sue for and recover the same; and the said agent, with the approbation of the governor and council, may make composition with any such debtors, and take bonds to the state, with sufficient security, and give time for payment, not exceeding two years from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to superintend the collection of all monies due to the state for naval duties, fines, penalties, forfeitures and amerciaments, and forfeited recognizances, and for ordinary, retailers and marriage licences, and to require payment, and, if necessary, sue for and recover the same; and the said agent may allow for insolvencies, and credit any money that the party is not chargeable with by law, and for his information of the law, he may take the advice of the attorney-general in writing.

V. And be it enacted, That whenever there shall be occasion to expose to public sale the property of any collector, or his securities, by virtue of any execution already issued, or to be issued for this purpose, the said agent shall cause at least thirty days public notice to be given of such sale, and shall attend the same, and if it shall appear that there is danger of losing any part of the debt due to the state, and not otherwise, shall purchase any property so exposed to sale for the use of the state, in payment, or part payment, as the case may be, of the arrearages due by the collectors whose property may be so purchased, and that no purchase authorised by this act shall be considered as made on the part of the state, unless a public declaration to that effect be made by the agent, or his deputy, immediately after such sale and purchase; and any property so purchased for the use of the state, the said agent may again expose to public auction on the most advantageous terms, for the use of the state, and if the same be sold on credit, which shall in no case exceed the term of two years, the said agent shall take bond, with good and sufficient security, to be approved of by the treasurer of the western shore, from the purchasers of such property, and all bonds by him so taken shall be deposited, with an accurate list thereof subscribed by him, in the treasury of the western shore, and shall be a lien upon the real property of such purchasers, and their securities, from the respective dates, or so much thereof as is mentioned in the schedule thereto annexed.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said agent is hereby directed to dispose of all confiscated British property that remains unsold, and take bonds to the state, with sufficient security, and give time for the payment thereof, not exceeding two years from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred, and that where the quantity of land in any one body subject to such sale exceeds the quantity of fifty acres, such land shall be disposed of at public sale, of the time and place of which sale at least thirty days previous notice shall be given by public advertisement; and that at the time of any sale by virtue of this act, the said agent shall make known that he only sells the right of this state thereto, and that the state doth not guaranty the title to the same, or any part thereof, but that the purchase must be in all respects at the risk of the purchaser.

VII. And be it enacted, That no payment in future by any officer or person indebted to the state shall be valid and effectual, unless made to the treasurer of the western or eastern shore, or to the agent, or unless made to the clerks and sheriffs of the several counties, in the cases where the said clerks and sheriffs are by law authorised to receive the same.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the agent shall have full power and authority, by and with the advice of the governor and council, in all cases of uninstalled debts, to take back any property heretofore purchased by any person, and not yet paid for, in cases where the person so having purchased, and his securities, are not capable of paying for the same, and to compromise the same upon terms and principles of equity and justice, by and with the advice and consent aforesaid; and the agent is hereby required to lay a particular statement of his proceedings under this section before the next session of assembly.

IX. And be it enacted, That the agent, with the approbation and consent of the governor and council, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to compromise any suit depending in chancery with any state debtor, upon any terms in their judgment calculated to promote the interest of the state, and to obtain the speedy receipt of the sums due.

X. And be it enacted, That if, under the terms of any compromise made as aforesaid, the property heretofore purchased should be taken back and revested in the state, the same may be sold by the agent, and he is hereby authorised and empowered to sell the same at public sale, giving thirty days notice, on a credit of two years, payable one half of the principal, and the whole interest, annually, on the first day of December in each year, and the bonds, when taken, shall be returned to the treasury of the western shore, and reported to the general assembly at their session next ensuing the taking of such bonds.

XI. And be it enacted, That all cases in chancery, where no compromise under this act is effected, shall be placed under the direction of the agent, who is hereby authorised and required to call on the attorney-general to prosecute or defend the same to immediate final decision; and the governor and council are hereby authorised and empowered, at the request of the agent, in cases of difficulty, to aid the attorney-general, by employing any person to attend to surveys where necessary, or otherwise to assist in the prosecution or defence of said suits, which person or persons are to be paid out of the contingent fund of five hundred pounds; and the names of the persons so employed, together with the sum allowed for their services, to be laid before the general assembly at their next session.

XII. And be it enacted, That if any bond debtor to the state for confiscated property purchased, or otherwise, shall neglect to make payment agreeably to the condition of his bond, and sundry resolves of the general assembly, the said agent shall cause process to issue for the whole principal and interest then due, or shall proceed on any execution already issued, and served and suspended, as occasion may require, or, under the directions and with the approbation of the governor and council, he is hereby authorised to delay any execution as long as they may think expedient and necessary.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to superintend the collection of all balances due on bond taken for taxes due before the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three; and the said agent shall also superintend the collection of all balances due on bonds installed, or otherwise, for the emissions of paper money of one thousand seven hundred and sixty nine, and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three.

XIV. And be it enacted, That no process shall issue against any of the public debtors, unless by the direction of the said agent.

XV. And be it enacted, That the said agent shall have power to fix such days of sale of property taken by feri facias, at the suit of the state, as he may think proper, always taking care to give at least twenty days public notice thereof; and the said agent shall also have power to suspend the sales, from time to time, as he may think most to the advantage of the state.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the said agent shall pay into the treasury, in specie, the amount of all specie by him received in the discharge of the duties of this act.

XVII. And be it enacted, That in all cases where bonds shall be taken in virtue of this act, the bonds shall be a lien on the real property of the obligors from the date thereof, or on so much of the said real property as the governor and council shall think sufficient, to be particularly mentioned in a schedule to be annexed to the said bond, in which case it shall be a lien on the property contained in such schedule, and no more, such bond and schedule to be lodged with the treasurer of the western shore.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That all bonds taken in virtue of this act shall express the county in which the obligors respectively reside, and the treasurer of the western shore shall, within one month after he receives them respectively, cause them, with the schedule annexed to them, to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the general court of the western shore, at the expence of the obligors; and a copy of the said record, certified under the hand and official seal of the said clerk, shall be as good evidence in any court of law or equity in this state as the original bond would be if it was produced; and if any of the obligors in any such bonds reside on the eastern shore, the said treasurer shall, within six months from the time he receives the same respectively, transmit to the clerk of the general court of the eastern shore, in the same manner as papers on public service are transmitted, a copy of such bonds and schedules, certified as aforesaid by the clerk of the general court of the western shore, to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the general court of the eastern shore, at the expence of the obligors, and in such case a copy of the said record, certified as aforesaid by the clerk of the general court of the eastern shore, shall be good evidence as aforesaid.

XIX. And be it enacted, That the said agent shall render to the treasurer of the western shore distinct quarterly accounts of his receipts of all money, certificates and bonds, in virtue of this act, and shall immediately thereupon pay and deliver the same to the said treasurer, who shall, in his annual report to the general assembly, state fully and particularly the money, certificates and bonds, by him received from the said agent, and the times when the same were received and accounted for.

XX. And be it enacted, That the said agent shall render a fair and full account of his several proceedings under the authority of this act to the general assembly at their next session, and within the first ten days after its commencement, in which account shall be specified, under distinct heads, his own receipts, and those of the treasurer, and of all transfers of stock upon which he may be entitled to commission, and in which shall also be contained a particular estimate of his commission, shewing how and upon what the same arose due.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the said agent shall, within twenty days after the commencement of the next session of the general assembly, render to each branch of the legislature a fair and distinct account of the debts or sums of money due to the state, ranging the names of the debtors in alphabetical order, and give full and complete information of the manner in which, and the time when, each debt arose, and also the different steps and proceedings which have been taken by himself, or others, for the recovery thereof.

XXII. And be it enacted, That the said agent shall be allowed for his services the following commissions, to wit: for all payments actually made to either of the treasurers in virtue of this act, three per cent. and for all bonds taken by the said agent in virtue of this act, three per cent.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the said agent, before he enters upon the execution of the duties of this act, shall give bond to the state, before the governor and council, in the penalty of sixty thousand dollars, with such security as the governor and council shall approve, for the faithful performance of the said duties, which bond shall be lodged with the treasurer of the western shore, and shall also take an oath before the chancellor, that he will well and faithfully discharge the duties as agent under the act, entitled, An act to appoint an agent for the year one thousand eight hundred, to the best of his skill and judgment, the certificate of which oath shall be annexed to, or endorsed on, the said bond.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the agent be and he is hereby authorised and directed to collect any sum or sums of money due from persons resident without the state of Maryland, and, if necessary, sue therefor, and he is also authorised to employ counsel for the recovery of the same, and give such fee as he may think reasonable, and draw on the treasurer of the western shore therefor, who is hereby authorised to pay the amount of such order.

XXV. And be it enacted, That if the said agent shall not accept his appointment, or if after his acceptance he shall not give bond, and take the oath aforesaid, before the first day of February next, or shall die, the governor and council are hereby authorised and requested to appoint a fit and proper person in his place, who shall have and execute all the authorities and powers vested in the said William Marbury by this act, such person first giving security, and taking the oath aforesaid.

Notice to State Debtors.

THE Agent requests all debtors to the State of Maryland to discharge their respective balances on or before the tenth day of March next, immediately thereafter all lawful means will be taken to enforce payment, and all penalties incurred by the delinquent clerks and sheriffs will be exacted.

WILLIAM MARBURY, Agent.

MADRID, October 23.

TWO negotiators, an Austrian and a Prussian, are said to have arrived here, and proposed a basis for a general peace. Several councils of state have indeed been held for some time past, at Aranjuez, in presence of the prince of peace, but they are said to relate not so much to negotiations for peace, as to the state of our finances.

MILAN, November 1.

After several engagements, the French were again driven behind Coni, on the 29th ultimo. Generals Strauch and Dedowick still occupy Mount St. Gothard.

ROVEREDO, November 3.

General Melas having detached some battalions from the main army, to enable general Kraczai to resist the French, who were advancing towards Tortona, general Championet attacked the Austrians, on the 28th ultimo, between Ceva and Mondovi. After a very serious engagement, the French were repulsed, and general Grenelle, with several other officers, and 500 men, made prisoners. On the following day, the enemy renewed their attack, when they succeeded to advance against Fullano and Saviglisno. Further details are hourly expected. The blockade of Coni is raised. Letters from Venice, of the 31st ultimo, state the arrival of 22 Russian ships with troops in the harbour of Naples. At Naples, the number of Russians amounted, at that time, to 8000 men.

HEILBRUNN, November 5.

Talleyrand is appointed minister of foreign affairs.

General Championet having resigned, and general Macdonald refused the command of the army of Italy, it is said to have been offered to gen. Moreau.

ASCHAFFENBURG, November 8.

Last night, at ten o'clock, official confirmation was received here of the victory gained by the Auſtrians near Ludwigſburg. The French are ſaid to have had 2000 men killed. The commander of Chamboram huſſars was killed, and general Ney is alſo ſaid to have been wounded. The French were again attacked on their retreat by colonel Wrede, which was greatly impeded by him. An Imperial captain of cavalry, whom the archduke had ſent to lead the peaſants in the Odenwold, has marched with three thouſand men to cut off a column of the enemy, but it is not known whether he has ſucceeded. Philipſburg is relieved; and, in the preſent ſituation of affairs, no other retreat ſeems to remain open for the French than through Manheim, where they have only a flying bridge. The French priſoners ſay, that the Auſtrians had advanced againſt them from all quarters, and that their army would have ſuffered conſiderably more, had not the French artillery been ſucceſsfully employed.

RATISBON, November 11.

On the 8th inſtant, the Imperial decree of ratification of the 31ſt ult. concerning the reſolutions of the diet of the 6th September, granting 100 Roman months, and the furniſhing of the quintupie contingents, was laid before the aſſembly of the empire. His Imperial majeſty ſpeaks in it of the meaſures of the French government taken for the deſtruction of Germany and its conſtitution, and calls upon the members of the empire, in virtue of his Imperial dignity, and in the name of his country, ſtrictly to fulfil all their duties as members of that body, and alſo to promote the organization of the inhabitants, whoſe efficacy the ſubjects of Mentz have ſo ſtrongly evinced.

VIENNA, November 6.

The report that the French government had made propoſals for peace to our court, is ſtill in circulation; and it is ſaid that an armiſtice of 4 months had been concluded, during which period negotiations are to be carried on. Apartments are preparing in the Imperial palace for the reception of the archduke Charles, who is ſhortly expected here. Since the report of an armiſtice, and of an approaching peace, has gained ground, the public funds have riſen five per cent; but, from the meaſures which our government are taking, there is no reaſon to hope for any change of affairs, the warlike preparations being continued with the utmoſt activity.

November 9.

It is ſtill ſaid, that negotiations for peace are carrying on, under the mediation of Pruſſia and Spain. The Spaniſh ambaſſador has had ſeveral conferences with baron Thuget, which are ſuppoſed to relate to negotiations.—To theſe reports it is added, that an armiſtice had already been agreed upon between the two armies.

BERLIN, November 16.

Negotiations for peace, under the mediation of our court, are now the general topic of converſation. It is likewiſe ſaid, that general Buonaparte will arrive here, and ſome of our politicians have even fixed the day of his arrival, which, they ſay, will be on the 16th of next month. Though that report is very improbable, yet it ſeems to have gained ſome ſtrength, from the ſtatements in ſome public prints, that Buonaparte would go upon a diplomatic miſſion.

LONDON, November 17.

An expedition to the coaſt of France, is now very generally ſpoken of, the object of which is to be, to land an army in the neighbourhood of Breſt, for the purpoſe of attacking the batteries which protect that port, while a ſquadron of our ſhips enter the harbour, to deſtroy the combined fleets by a coup de main. Such was the report of yeſterday, which we ſhould not have ventured to repeat, were it not that the wide circulation it obtained, deprived it even of the ſlighteſt veil of ſecrecy.

November 28.

Government received advices yeſterday from the coaſt of Brittany, of the whole of the troops having been marched from Breſt and its neighbourhood, to act againſt the Chouans, who have lately conſiderably increaſed in number, and who according to private letters proceeded laſt week againſt Quimper, and liberated a number of royaliſts priſoners from that place. We alſo underſtand that the republican army in that quarter is much divided on the ſubject of the late revolution, and that a formidable ſpirit of diſaffection has begun to manifeſt itſelf againſt the new order of things. The combined fleets in the harbour of Breſt are in a ſtate of complete inactivity, and the batteries on ſhore are entirely manned with the ſailors from the fleet.

NEW-YORK, January 23.

Extract of a letter from a reſpectable merchant in Cork to his correſpondent in this city, dated November 22.

"I ſuppoſe, Sir, you have heard of Buonaparte's return to France. There is a report here that he has eſtabliſhed a new directory, and has appointed ſome able perſons to negotiate with the Britiſh miniſtry. We may hope his excellency, in the meekneſs of his heart, may be diſpoſed to look amicably towards America."

The recent intelligence from Liſbon ſtates, that the moſt ſerious apprehenſions are entertained by the inhabitants of that city leſt another earthquake as violent as that which happened in 1755, ſhould take place. Two ſhocks were lately felt there in one night, with intervals only of ten minutes between them. The firſt ſhock cauſed great alarm, and diſturbed moſt of the inhabitants.

NORFOLK, January 18.

Arrived yeſterday the brig Maria, captain Livingſton, 23 days from Kingſton, Jamaica. The day before captain L. ſailed martial law was proclaimed through the iſland, in conſequence of the apprehenſion of ſome ſpies, from whom information was obtained of an attack being premeditated. One man had been condemned to death as a ſpy. The governor had ordered 400 French negroes off, and ſhipping were chartered to carry them to Martinique and Trinidad. Priſoners of war on parole at Kingſton were ordered to be confined in fort Auguſta, thoſe with families excepted, who were, however, to find good ſecurity for their peaceable conduct.

From the (London) Courier.

Remarks of the editor on the late news from France.

Such is the intelligence. Has Buonaparte, who atchieved ſo much againſt the monarchs of Europe, proved himſelf at laſt the greateſt friend of the coalition, and done that in a day, which Europe has vainly attempted for years? Is he ambitious of becoming a ſecond monk? But it is abſurd to argue upon ſlight foundation. That the revolution is a royaliſt one we diſbelieve entirely.

But the moſt material point for this country is this. Will the change that has taken place accelerate a peace? What we hope is not perhaps what we have a right to expect. Yet we cannot but remark, that all the French journals are ſanguine in their expectations of peace. Sieyes is ſtated to be decidedly pacific; and if credit is to be attached to the repreſentations of the Paris papers, Buonaparte entertains the ſame ſentiments.

A cabinet council, at which all the miniſters aſſiſted, was held this day at noon, at lord Grenville's office. It is as ſuppoſed to be upon the important news received from France. The council remained ſitting when this paper was but to preſs.

BALTIMORE, February 1.

The following article appears under the Bourdeaux head of November 11:

The directory have ordered the embargo on ſeveral veſſels, and particularly on the John and Richard, an American veſſel, to be taken off.

On the requeſt of the conſul of the United States, the miniſter of marine, after having conſulted with that of the interior, charged the commiſſary ſuperintendant of the marine to ſet at liberty all American priſoners detained in the priſons of this commune, who ſhall be claimed as natives of America, or as naturalized Americans. This meaſure, founded on the hope of an approaching treaty of alliance and of commerce between the government of the United States and that of the French republic, is a moſt happy omen for the ſpeedy interchange of the immenſe commerce which formerly enriched both countries.

Annapolis, January 13, 1800.

Gentlemen,

HIS excellency the Governor has, by his determination of to-day, thought proper to change the day of prayer, in the proclamation respecting general George Washington, to the twenty-second of February next; you will therefore, immediately upon the receipt of this, make the necessary alteration, and consider this as your authority for so doing.

I am, with great respect,
Your obedient servant,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the governor and council.

Messrs. Green.

By his EXCELLENCY
BENJAMIN OGLE, Esquire.
GOVERNOR of MARYLAND,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Legislature of this State, penetrated with regret for the death of the illustrious patriot general George Washington, and zealous to express their high respect and veneration for his eminent virtues and distinguished service to his country, have, by a resolution unanimously assented to on the 17th instant, requested me "to appoint, by proclamation, a day of mourning, humiliation and prayer, throughout this state, and to recommend it to the citizens thereof to assemble in their respective places of worship, to testify, in the most public manner, their veneration for his memory, and to derive, from the just eulogiums of his meritorious services, the best motives for the imitation of his virtues."

And, whereas I entirely accord with the honourable legislature in the measure proposed, and am anxious to co-operate with them in paying this tribute of grateful respect to the merits and long tried patriotism of our deceased fellow-citizen, I have therefore thought proper to recommend and advise, and do hereby recommend and advise accordingly, that the twenty-second day of February next be observed throughout this state as a day of mourning, humiliation and prayer—that the citizens on that day go into mourning, and abstaining, as far as may be, from their secular occupation, devote the time to the sacred duties of religion—that they call to mind the virtues, public services, and unshaken patriotism of the deceased, and admiring endeavour to emulate them—that they implore the Most High God to supply his loss, by inspiring them with a love of true liberty and pure religion, and by dispensing the blessings of peace and knowledge throughout the land—and that he would grant to the people of this and the United States, that the wisdom and virtues of a Washington may never cease to influence and direct our public councils.

Given in the council chamber, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this eighteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

BEN. OGLE.

By the Governor,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the governor and council.

ORDERED, by his excellency the Governor, that the foregoing proclamation be published every day, until the 12th of February next, in the Federal Gazette at Baltimore, the Maryland Gazette at Annapolis, Mr. Cowan's paper at Easton, the Rights of Man at Frederick town, the Washington Spy at Hagar's-town, and in Green, English, and Co. paper at George-town.

By order,
NINIAN PINKNEY.

To the Voters of Anne Arundel county and City of Annapolis.

Gentlemen,

OBSERVING that a number of persons are to be candidates at the next ensuing election, for the office of sheriff for this county, and having acted for several years past as a deputy under that commission, and, I trust, with some degree of reputation to myself, and satisfaction to the public, I therefore now take the liberty to solicit your suffrages for that office, and should I be so fortunate as to meet with the approbation of a majority of the freemen of my native county, I can assure them, that no exertions on my part shall be wanting to do justice to the office, and the public in general.

I am, respectfully,
Your very humble servant,
HENRY HOWARD, of JOHN.

December 24, 1799.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, on 3d December, a negro man named SAUL, about 23 or 25 years old, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, yellowish complexion; his cloathing a blue over jacket, striped under jacket, and gray coating overalls; says he was bought from major SAMUEL CHAPMAN, of Charles county, by Messrs. WELLBORN and BLAKE, of North-Carolina. His owners are desired to pay charges and take him away, or he will be sold agreeably to law for prison fees, &c.

THOMAS A. DYSON, Sheriff of Charles county.
